An attempt was made to burn the town of Albany. A suspected young man was driven out of the place.

A lunatic from Campbellville got away from the officers at Lebanon and terrorized women and children till captured.

The Welch-Hackley Coal and Oil Company has purchased about 18,000 acres of land in Knox county and will begin operations September 10.

J. A. Craft has sued W. E. Barron for $10,000 in the Fayette circuit court, alleging that he failed to carry out certain mail contracts in Texas sub-let to him by Craft.

The sheriff of Casey county arrested McClelland Woodrum and his brother-in-law, Tucker, for the murder of Lucien Marble in that county last week. The prisoners are now in jail at Liberty.

In the case of the wholesale grocers of Louisville, indicted in Whitley county for combining to fix prices, it is urged by the defense that the anti-trust law of 1890 has become inoperative under the new constitution.

Friends of J. A. Craft, of Louisville, formerly of London, will sympathize with him in the loss of his only son, Robert M. Craft, a bright young man of 20 years, who died of heart failure. The remains were taken to London for interment.

On account of the extremely critical illness of Mr. W. G. Raney, Third Street, between Broadway and Lexington has been temporarily closed to vehicles. Dolph Rice has sold a half interest in his livery business to his old partner, J. A. Yeager, and the firm will again be Yeager & Rice.—Danville Advocate.

The railroad commission granted petition of coal companies in the South-eastern part of the State, along the L. & N., asking that the long and short haul clause be inoperative to Lexington, Winchester, Richmond and Jettis; the other is presented by the receiver of the Southern railroad, that it be inoperative as regards Ludlow, Louisville, Frankfort, Nicholasville, Wilmore and High Bridge, these points coming in competition with the extreme low river rates.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

George W. Klingman will preach at the court-house Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock.

A fair picture and a good write-up of Rev. F. W. Allen appears in the current issue of the Lexington Messenger. Rev. C. H. Conwell, D. D., during his pastorate of the Temple Church, Philadelphia, has baptized 3,785 converts.

Elder J. G. Livingston writes: Our meeting closed at Goshen last night, resulting in 12 additions to the church. One of the best meetings ever held at this place.

Charges were filed against the Rev. Shoemith and the Rev. Barker at the Methodist conference in session at Carle, but they were not made public. Committees of investigation were appointed.

Rev. W. W. Bruce, who now lives at Perryville, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at Hustonville, announces his advocacy of Goebel and says that he will take great pleasure in voting for him.

Rev. F. M. Kuykendall, a Baptist minister of Garrard, says down in Franklin where he has been preaching, he didn't see a single man against Goebel, who is a worthy man and will be elected governor.

Rev. John Reeves, presiding elder, is on trial before the Carlisle conference, on serious charges preferred by Rev. Marshall, of Flemingsburg, and two strong factions are warring about the return of Rev. W. S. Grinstead to Millersburg. About 150 ministers are present. It is charged that the Rev. Reeves, upon the evidence of two prominent physicians there, has committed an unpardonable offense against society. Rev. Reeves married first a lady from Georgetown, and his second wife was a resident of Flemingsburg. The name of the woman in the case has not been given.

The Negroes at Mt. Sterling say that in order to induce them to vote in the primary for Stone they were told that Taylor favored the Jim Crow car law and now they say they are told that it is all a mistake. But all the same they say they won't vote for Taylor till they get a clear expression from him that he is against the law.

Kansas farmers and business men have formed a trust called the Farmers' Federation of the Mississippi Valley, with $20,000,000 capital, for the purpose of controlling the price of farm products, particularly Kansas corn.

Nearly 18,000 acres of land in Knox county was sold for $500,000.

MT. VERNON.

The Rockcastle Teachers' Association will meet at Brodhead Sept. 9th. The ladies of Livingston have a bathing club. A pool in Roundstone is its favorite resort.

Mrs. Frankie Gentry has been quite ill, but is better. Mrs. Ann Albright is visiting at Brodhead. Mrs. Ida May Adams, the talented elocutionist, has been requested to organize a class in elocution at Livingston.

Owing to the fact that Supt. Davis allowed the Berea Glee Club to perform on Wednesday evening of Institute week, the date he had promised for the W. C. T. U. contest, and so advertised, the former made $20 and the latter $7. Many came from a distance to attend the contest, not knowing of the change.

Miss Pattie Green, of Versailles, is visiting Mrs. M. C. Miller. Mrs. Annie Miller, of Washington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miller. Judge Williams has been very ill. Fred Kreuger was in from Harlan recently. Marshal Short arrested a moonshiner at the republican rally at London. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bethurum are on the sick list. Mrs. Abner Winkler, of Lebanon Junction is visiting in this county. Mrs. W. was formerly Miss Alma Stark, who once lived here.

Truly all the world is akin and all people like some recreation occasionally to vary the monotony of life. On our way from Virginia we stopped at Corbin to tell the L. & N. people of the merits of our new song, "In the Sunny South." There we found a large crowd of people assembled to enjoy the circus. Taking the train for Mt. Vernon we saw many board the train for the Brodhead fair. We attended the famous fair the last day and found our old friend, Mr. E. E. Protheroe, president, making all feel at home and glad they attended.

With this letter, we as correspondents, bid adieu to the many readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, hoping ever to be remembered kindly by those who have enjoyed reading our news notes from this place.

We have as yet heard of no democratic candidate in this county for the Legislature.

Seventy tickets were sold for the Cincinnati excursion from here last Sunday morning.

Buckeye Church, near this place, is holding a protracted meeting with a large attendance. Elder Young has charge.

The 17th Senatorial district republicans will hold a convention here next Tuesday to nominate a candidate for State Senator.

There is a movement on foot to have Goebel and Blackburn speak at the Brodhead fair grounds some time during next month when there will be an old time barbecue and burgo.

The telephone companies are making preparations to run a "metallic" circuit from Livingston to Danville, Stanford and Lancaster at once. It will require 150 miles of wire.

The Pine Hill Mining Co.'s lands and effects were sold at trustees' sale last Saturday and were bought by Col. J. A. August, the president of the company, for $7,500. The works will likely be started up at an early date.

Last Monday near Pine Hill a tree fell on Joe Perciful, a 17-year-old boy, causing death in an hour. The tree had been chopped down by young Perciful's father and a companion. It fell in a contrary direction to what was expected. The father, with assistance, had to saw the tree in two before they could move the boy.

The news butch on No. 24 yesterday agreed to furnish Bob Rucker, the lumberman, all the bananas he could eat for 25 cents. Eating was begun at Brodhead and when Stanford was passed 21 bananas had disappeared down Rucker's throat and the work was going bravely on when the butch fainted.

Egbert Waller is in from South Carolina, where he has been engaged for some months. Mrs. B. H. Conn, of Oklahoma, is visiting relatives in this county. Mrs. Mollie Ellis, of Bell County, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Gentry, this county. E. T. Fish, who has been traveling in Virginia and Maryland, is at home laid up with fever. Miss Pattie Green, after some weeks' visit to this place, has returned to Versailles. Mrs. J. L. Whitehead, of Williamsburg, has been ill of typhoid fever for six weeks. L. M. Hook still remains ill. J. T. Adams is here from Bryansville. Col. J. A. August and Wm. Welsh, coal men, were here Monday. Misses Lena and Bessie McClure are visiting Parksville relatives.

While working on the road near town Wednesday afternoon James Colyer fired a blast and started to run, after picking up a powder can. By some unknown cause the can exploded, fearfully burning his hands and face and fringing his clothing. His cries of distress were answered by Lee Kinnard, who knowing the blast would soon explode, went to the rescue and removed the clothing from the sufferer. In the mean time he kept a watch on the blast, which was but a few yards off. The explosion came and a large boulder was seen coming in the direction of the wounded man. Kinnard dragged him out of the way in time to prevent his head from being mashed. Colyer will recover, though suffering terribly from his burns. Kinnard deserves much credit for bravery displayed in his daring act.

Twelve heavy steel arches of the new Chicago Coliseum building fell. Nine bodies of dead workmen were taken out and two were missing. Thirteen injured men were rescued, one dying since. A fatality seems to hang over Chicago Coliseum. Of the three erected there, two fell in ruins before their completion, and the third was burned to the ground.

STORY OF A SLAVE.
To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Peany, Druggist.

At Hartford, Conn., Joe Patchen won the first 2:00 minute pace over scheduled, over four starters, Anaconda, Chelalis, Frank Bogosh and Searchlight. Anaconda was the favorite. BISMARCK'S IRON NERVE.
Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c. at Peany's drug store.

Something of a very surprising nature is in store for the republican party of Garrard county. This is not written to create a sensation. The facts will be given later. Democrats will yet see their salvation in due time.

The Baptist Association at Mt. Tabor, near Paint Lick, was largely attended this week, and it was a season of enjoyment for the physical as well as the spiritual man, there being an abundance to eat, dinner being spread on the grounds each day.

Although Walker's School-house precinct gave eight majority for the sale of liquor last month, Judge Burnside refused to grant a license last Monday, claiming that a majority of the legal voters protested by petition, which indicates that there was some irregularity in the election.

Mr. J. E. Robinson proved himself to be a politician in introducing Congressman Clayton last Monday and Mr. Clayton's exhortation of Bill Sweeney and the "Young Brown Johnnies," elicited considerable applause. He referred to them as decoy ducks and asserted that they could not deceive a one-eyed Negro in Alabama.

R. L. Jennings, a popular young merchant of Paint Lick, and Miss Lizzie, the beautiful and lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, of this city, will drive to Danville on Wednesday, Sept. 6th, and take the marriage vows at Mrs. A. C. Dunn's, Elder J. L. Allen officiating. They go to Danville because the new residence of Mr. Thompson is not completed.

Rice Benge's stock pens near the depot were liberally patronized on Monday and they promise to be a favorite resort for stock men on public days, as the stock is well cared for and trading can be effected without interference. About 150 cattle, 400 sheep, milk cows and horses were handled at good price. This is a long needed enterprise and, besides being a great convenience, it keeps much filth from the town.

Dismissals and continuances have been the principal orders in the circuit court this week. Chas. Williams, colored, was fined $50 for malicious cutting and wounding with intent to kill, to pay which he was put at hard labor. The case of John Smith against Mrs. Sallie Ballard for $5,000 damages by accusing him of stealing corn, was dismissed and a suit similarly styled, was filed for $20,000 for making another accusation. Messrs. W. I. Williams and J. T. Hays were appointed to examine applicants for law license and Mr. Jno. T. Johnson will be examined. Judge J. W. Alcorn attended court this week.

OF COURSE THAT'S THE GAME.

SOMERSET, Aug. 31.—W. O. Newell, the central committeeman of the 11th district for the Brown L. & N. ticket, openly boasted here on the streets today that the bolters had no hopes of electing Brown, but their whole object was to defeat Goebel and elect Taylor. Is that "true" democracy or Judas Iscariot hypocrisy? X

COUGHED 25 YEARS.
I suffered 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Rosell, Grantsburg, Ill.

Bob Gregory was shot and instantly killed in Clay county. The gun used was a No. 56 rifle, and the ball tore Gregory's body almost in two. The trouble was over a card game. Several fired shots at Gregory, but Alex Fisher is said to have done the killing.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - SEPT. 1, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

or Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL.
For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM.
For Attorney General, R. J. BRECKINRIDGE. or Auditor, GUS G. COULTER.
Treasurer, S. W. HAGER.
For Secretary of State, C. BRECK HILL.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, HARRY MCCHESNEY.
For Commissioner of Agriculture, ION B. NALL.
For Railroad Commissioner, C. C. MCCHORD.
For Representative, M. F. NORTH.

SENATOR GOEBEL certainly had on his fighting clothes at Bowling Green Monday, where he and Senator Blackburn spoke to "acres of people," as the latter expressed it, there being 4,000 by the most conservative estimate. After asserting that he never assaulted a man in his life unless he first assaulted him, Senator Goebel said he asked no quarter and feared no man. Theodore Hallam had spoken in Bowling Green recently and said a good many things about the Senator and his family. They have both lived in Covington for 30 years. He had been honored with election to the State Senate longer than any other man. Hallam ran against him last time and got 600 votes, while he got 4,300 or seven times as many. Then he added: "Hallam said I had not changed a particle in appearance in 20 years. But I can't say as much for him. If I had been a drunkard and a debauchee, I, too, would have changed and would carry with me a face similar to a piece of cancerous beefsteak. He may talk about my brothers, but I never had one in the penitentiary, and that is more than he can say for himself. He and Harvey Myers, while in the Legislature, were partners in drawing a monthly stipend from the lotteries. I passed the bill that took from them that stipend. Myers, while speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives, wrote a letter to Manager Frantz, of the Covington lottery offices, demanding $200 as a monthly stipend, and I have the original copy of that letter at home. That's the reason Myers was not returned to the Legislature and that's why he was defeated for Commonwealth's attorney by 2,000 votes."

Myers aided in the Lexington convention in nominating Jno. C. Droege for treasurer, although he had Myers indicted for attempting to bribe him while he was an alderman, to vote for an ordinance extending the franchise of a street railway. Myers escaped because the ordinance was not pending at the time Droege swore that the attempt to bribe him was made.

"And W. C. Owens, of Georgetown," continued the Senator, "is one of those who have been assailing me. While at Frankfort I did what I could to make it a felony to run a faro bank or roulette table and other gambling devices, and thereby I interfered with Owens' regular business. He was an applicant for office under McKinley and is doubtless preparing for another application."

He referred to W. C. Pollard Breckinridge as another of the purificationists, who were libelling him and said a mention of his name was sufficient. W. H. Mackay, another of the gang, was a member of the board of directors of a turnpike company when the Senator secured the passage of a law which resulted in cutting its tolls in half, and thereby interfered with his business somewhat.

Then the speaker went for the Louisville Post and Dispatch and showed that one of the editors of the latter, G. W. Smith, only escaped being a convict by a pardon granted him by Gov. Bradley. The other editors of the disreputable sheet are either habitual bolters or republicans. The whole speech was hot stuff and the way it was interrupted by applause shows that the bolters in Warren were either hid out or their number has been greatly magnified.

When Blackburn's time came he proceeded to do Browne up Brown by refuting some of his many fallacies both as to history and the present campaign. In comparison with the L. & N.-Brown bolter-free ticket-free lunch hippodrome, the meeting was clean out of sight. Brown's hearers easily got into the court-house, capable of holding only 600 people. The park was hardly sufficient to hold those who heard the next governor and the next Senator, and if Warren county doesn't give the usual majority and more for the democratic ticket all signs go for naught.

J. G. BAILEY, who ran against S. J. Shackelford for clerk of the court of appeals in 1897, will get a place in the Census Bureau if he can pass a civil service examination, which some people doubt as much as Gov. Bradley did the capacity of Taylor to do so, when he was asked if he was for the misfit attorney general for U. S. Senator.

IN his speech at Lawrenceburg, Senator McChord produced the proof that Gov. Brown expressed the strongest friendship for Senator Goebel and while he was willing and anxious to be nominated for governor, he said he would not accept the nomination without the Senator's consent. Not one word did Brown say about his nomination must be secured by a clean or any other vote, except by the delegates then seated in the convention, which he wanted stamped to him. Mr. Urey Woodson corroborates McChord and is surprised that the statement of Brown that his visit was voluntary. Graham Vreeland, of the Courier-Journal, likewise substantiates McChord's statements. All of which convicts Brown of the basest duplicity and falsehood. The platform had been made at the time, it endorsed the Election bill, which Brown is now fighting, and the inference is that he would have championed that law, had he been nominated. When he wasn't and he began to see "great lights" and hear the tempting voice of the L. & N., he changed front and became the willing tool of the disappointed and disgruntled. And the last end of that man shall be worse than the first.

JOHN R. MCLEAN, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was nominated for governor of Ohio on the first ballot, over a field of six and as it makes no particular difference whether the State goes democratic or not this year, he will doubtless be elected. The platform reaffirms the Chicago platform in its entirety, demands Bryan's nomination in 1900, imperialism is unalterably opposed since our government cannot be republican and imperial, opposes entangling alliances with foreign nations, denounces the secret and vicious alliance now in evidence between England and the republican administration, whereby this nation may become involved in war with foreign nations, demands that the Cubans and Filipinos be allowed to establish independent republics, denounces trusts and ship subsidies, declares for the initiative and referendum, an eight-hour labor law, the prohibition of sweatshops and the abolition of the contract system of prison labor.

IN his speech at Winchester, Judge Breckinridge reviewed the Chinn School Book bill and showed that the children of the State paid a tribute annually of $500,000 to the school book trust, demonstrating his argument by presenting two copies of American History, both printed by the same firm and identical in every particular. One was bought in Indiana for 65 cents, the other could not be purchased in Kentucky for less than $1. A comparative list of books used in the fifth grade of the common schools showed that while the children of Indiana get these books for $3.95 the children of Kentucky are forced to pay $6.20 for the same outfit. Indiana has a law similar to the Chinn bill, which prevents the extortion and forces the school book trust to furnish books at reasonable prices or not at all. The Chinn bill must go on the statute books next time, and it will if Goebel, North and other democrats are elected.

ALL things come to him who waits. We have waited long and waited patiently and have at last been rewarded. Yesterday notice came from W. J. Hogan, chairman, that we had been appointed an honorary member of the public and promotion committee of the Louisville Industrial Exposition to be held Oct. 9th to 21st, under the auspices of the Louisville Elks, and which promises to be the biggest thing on wheels.

THE newspapers that speak of Goebel democrats and of the Lexington ticket as the democratic ticket, exhibit an ignorance of the situation. Those who support the Louisville ticket are democrats. The little band of purificationists monkeying as a ticket and nominated by L. & N. employees and broken down politicians should be known by their real and true name—"The Taylor Aid Society."

THE Louisville Post prints a picture of Theodore Hallam, but it was taken long ago, before the mental and physical man had been destroyed by strong drink and debauchery, and when his face did not look as Senator Goebel describes it like a cancerous beefsteak. Hallam was a man once of great promise, but he is nothing more than a sot now.

OLD Billy Breckinridge says that it is the hit dog that howls, in his article in response to Goebel's strictures on him, and the way he writes and twists and barks, the old saw evidently holds good in his case. W. C. "Pollard" shows unmistakably that he was hit and hit hard.

FOR some reason the Lexington Press has cut us from its exchange list, but it is all right. We can get along without a paper edited by a man who fights his own brother, and that brother a better man in every way than himself.

THEODORE HALLAM says there ought to be more speakers on the stump for the L. & N. ticket, forgetting that all who will vote that ticket or the republican, are already raging around hunting for audiences to address.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Goebel gave the Bryan campaign fund $700 in 1896. How much did Brown give?

A prominent Bourbon county republican says Goebel will be elected by a majority of 20,000.

Congressman J. W. Bailey, of Texas, will spend a week in Kentucky for the democratic ticket.

The democratic campaign committee has engaged headquarters at the Galt House, Louisville.

Wayne county democrats nominated A. B. Owens, a popular merchant of Alex. for representative.

Joe Wilkinson, of Liberty, has been made chairman of the democratic campaign committee for Casey.

By actual count there are said to be just an even dozen of bolters in Franklin, and they show signs of repentance.

It is very considerate of Maj. McKinley to stay away from New York Sept. 28-29, lest he divert some of the honors that are meant for Dewey.

Gov. W. J. Stone, of Missouri, will devote the week of the 12th to the 17th to speaking in Kentucky for the ticket. One of his dates will be at Richmond.

Dorsey W. Shackelford, dem., was elected to succeed Congressman Bland, deceased, in the 8th Missouri district, by 2,500 over his republican opponent.

The Louisville Post says it has the authority to state that Hon. P. W. Hardin will make no speeches during the campaign, which is doubtless a lie.

Caleb Powers, republican nominee for secretary of state, will speak 48 times during the canvass, which seems to be considerable over time for a short horse.

Brown was never popular at home and will get few votes in Henderson. When he ran for governor his majority was only 63, whereas the normal democratic majority is 800.

Mt. Sterling Negroes are threatening to bolt the republican ticket over their inability to secure an expression from Candidate Taylor against the separate coach law.

J. L. Earlywine, of Paris, will be Gov. Bradley's private secretary, succeeding Col. Fred Roberts, who has resigned to accept appointment as city judge of Owensboro.

City Judge C. N. Pendleton, of Owensboro, died Tuesday night. Col. Fred H. Roberts, Gov. Bradley's private secretary, probably will be appointed to fill the vacant office.

The celebrated Durham coal mines, situated on Lookout Mountain, have been sold to C. E. Johnson and associates for $200,000. They already own 3,000 acres of coal land adjoining.

The Post file that Goebel went into the convention with only 167 votes, having been used so extensively, the Owensboro Messenger is moved to correct it and say that he started in with over 300.

A vote for Brown will do him no good, but it will strengthen Taylor and to that extent weaken Goebel. When disaffected democrats cool off they ought to think of this seriously.—Georgetown Times.

The democratic State campaign committee has arranged for a tour of the mountains by Senator Goebel, to begin at Greenup Sept. 13 and last 10 days. Capt. James Blackburn will accompany him, as the Senator has to go East.

Here's a pointer. The manufacturer of the large Goebel and Taylor buttons that retail for 15c, says that he has sold 16,000 with Goebel's picture and only 3,000 with Taylor's and that he can scarcely supply the demand for the former.

A prominent preacher of Boston who went to the Philippines with credentials from President McKinley, has returned and says that the war would have ended there long ago but for Gen. Otis' incapacity. He is too small for as big a thing as that.

John D. White says that under no circumstances would he vote for Taylor for governor because he is a politician not entitled to support. He also said that the Brown ticket would not get over 500 votes in the entire State, and that it was the weakest of political side-shows.

W. J. Bohon, the commercial tourist, tells the Cincinnati Enquirer, after a tour of the State, that the disaffection has not only been greatly magnified but is rapidly disappearing and that he thinks it is safe to put Goebel's majority at anywhere from 10,000 to 30,000. The vituperation and personal abuse of Senator Goebel which has become a persecution has reacted, and the people now know that it is from corporate and cormorant influence which he has fought and they will respond with enthusiasm in November.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Miss Lily Duncan, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chenault, of Richmond, and A. J. Draper, will marry on the 7th.

Upper Sandusky can lay claim to the oldest married couple in the State of Ohio, in Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stanley, who were married Aug. 19, 1818.

The annual report of the commission of pensions shows that during the year there were added to the pension roll 40,229 names and 43,186 were dropped, 34,345 of these by reason of death. There was expended for pensions $138,255,052.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE youngsters here who have dancing in their heads and not in their heels are preparing to import a professor to teach them the art.

THE G. A. R.'s will have a three days' reunion at Middleton's, 2 1/2 miles from Kingsville, Sept. 13-15. Among the speakers named are Col. T. P. Hill, Judge T. Z. Morrow, George E. Stone, Dr. W. M. Doores and Elder J. Q. Montgomery. Saxton's band will furnish the music and meals will be served on the grounds at 15c, with horse feeds at the same price.

Investigation at the Chicago stock yards in regard to the recent advances in the price of beef brought out the statement that never before in the history of the American cattle market has there been such a demand for all kinds of meat as the present time. The demand for export cattle is enormous and prices will be still higher.

About 400 cattle on the market, nearly all of them light heifers, which sold at 3 to 4c. Five cents was offered and refused for a few good steers. Some plain oxen brought 34 to 4c. Quite a demand for male colts, and about 50 were sold at prices ranging from $18 to $40. S. D. Goff, the past week, sent several hundred cattle to Illinois where they will be fed corn at a cost of 12c per bushel.—Winchester Democrat.

CHICKEN FEED.—Five bushels of chicken feed screenings for only $1 at J. H. Baughman & Co's. mill, Stan-ford. IF you haven't paid your taxes, do so at once. We must have the money and will expect everybody to come and pay county court day. S. M. Owens, Sheriff. FINED.—Jim Hubbard had his trial at Crab Orchard Tuesday for using abusive language to a Miss Lane and was fined $5. The costs in the case were $15.35 and he is serving it all out in jail. BEAZLEY HOTEL, Crab Orchard, is a very popular place. It is nearly always crowded and those who have tried it say that Proprietor W. A. Beazley sets a table that is worth going miles to enjoy. "How did you find things political-ly?" was asked Hon. Harvey Helm, who had just returned from Waynesburg. "There isn't a bolter from Halls Gap to the Pulaski line" was his emphatic and gratifying reply. GOOD SHAPE.—Mr. G. W. Carter, of Turnersville, who has traveled in a number of counties, including Adair and Russell, says he found democracy in good shape. The bolters will cut a very small figure in the counties he has been in, he thinks. SOLD HIS FARM.—Engineer J. R. Orndorff got tired of farming before he farmed at all and sold the place back to its original owner, Free Silver John-son, at a small loss. Mr. Johnson is about as glad to get the farm back as Mr. Orndorff was to get rid of it. SMALL-POX.—Dr. O'Bannon tells us that in the last six weeks he has treat-ed 15 cases of small-pox at Rowland, all having gotten well except George Moore, his two children and John Cogle. These cases are in the same house. The disease appears to be of a very mild form. SKULL BROKEN.—Jesse Sallee broke Cornellius Cook's skull with a rock about midnight last night. Sallee claims that Cook threw a cup of water on him and made what he thought was an effort to draw a pistol. Dr. O'Ban-non was called and he tells us that the wound is a bad one. Both are colored.

NEW jewelry at Hamilton's. EMPIRE drills and fertilizers at Beaz-ley & Carter's. THE weather bureau says that Sep-tember will be unusually cool, for which relief, if it comes, much thanks. REV. E. R. NOEL is forced to break up housekeeping and is disposing of his household goods at private sale. See ad. LOST on the Lancaster pike, an As-trachan cloak with fur collar. Return to Mrs. Frank Holtzclaw and get re-ward. CASPER APT will apply for distiller's license county court day to make and sell brandy by the quart. His house is near Kriger. A MONGREL team of four whites and the rest blacks came over from Cincin-nati yesterday and did up the colored team here 24 to 16. THE case of Prather, who killed Burton in Garrard, was continued and he was denied bail. George Jenkins, colored, got eight years for burglary. THE Louisville Post is scattered promiscuously here and is having a baleful effect upon those who want to believe the lies that it daily dishes up. Seventy-five free copies are sent here daily. HOP.—The Crab Orchard Springs management has decided to have an-other public hop this, Friday, evening, which will be the last of the season. Stanford and other dancers are expect-ed. THIS is Goebel and Blackburn day at the Danville fair and the way people will go from here and elsewhere will surprise even the management, which is expecting to handle a very large crowd. BIBLE LOST.—While returning home from church last Sunday, Mr. John H. Bright lost a flexible back Sunday School bible, made by the National Publishing Co. Return to him and re-ceive his hearty thanks. THE little mission band (the Coral Builders) will have a Coral reception at the residence of Miss Lena Yowell at Hustonville tonight from 5 to 12 P. M. All are cordially invited and all free will offerings will be gladly ac-cepted. DR. ALCORN says in the Danville Ad-vocate that if either Adam Carpenter or Uncle Dave Vandever is elected commissioner of agriculture, he will see to it that cyclones don't come this way, that floods and freshets are di-verted to other points and that dust and drouths will not be known during their incumbency. This ought to get them a big vote. COMING.—Mr. J. S. Hocker has word from Mr. R. T. Quisenberry, who went to New York to see President Spencer, of the Southern railroad, with refer-ence to the survey of a line for his Burgin extension, that he gave him emphatic assurance that he would see to it personally that a line from Burgin to Danville and to Jellico via Stanford was run before a final decision as to the most practical route will be made. Good. That's all we ask. Our route is bound to be chosen. HELLO SOMERSET.—Yesterday about 2:30 o'clock our telephone rang and on answering Miss Nettie Wray, operator of the exchange here, said that A. D. Shotwell, the owner of the Somerset line, wanted to speak to us. It was the first time conversations were held over the line and we enjoyed it for the reason that we are now more closely con-nected with our Somerset friends. We also had a talk with Editor W. B. Hansford. The exchange in Somerset is operated by Miss Etta Moss, whom we infer by a remark of hers, is a very pretty girl. THE fellow servants' bill that Senator Goebel tried to pass at the last term of the Legislature putting railroad and other employees on the same footing with passengers in regard to suits for damages, and his promise to use his best efforts for its passage should he be elected governor, are making him many friends among the railroad people, who are heartily for the bill. Hon. R. C. Warren spoke of the justice of the bill at Mt. Vernon Monday and those rail-road men who heard him asked him to go to Livingston and make an entire speech on the subject, and they would guarantee he would make many votes. LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS.—The open and flagrant violations of the li-quer laws in the Waynesburg section has become so unbearable that the peo-ple determined to stand if no longer, so eight warrants were sworn out against Sherman Brown and as many against Rutherford Morgan for selling whisky to minors, selling without license and selling on Sunday. Eleven warrants were also sworn out against Adams & Trobridge for similar offenses and two against Ann Hester. The trials were set for Wednesday before Squire Sing-leton and County Attorney Helm went thither to prosecute, but the wit-nesses were conveniently absent and the cases had to be continued to the 5th. There is much indignation among the law abiding and they intend to see that the witnesses are on hand next time.

THE public school, M. O. Winfrey, principal, will open next Monday. FOR RENT.—Five room cottage in Miller addition. Forrest McClary. * THE dwelling of Mr. Mahan burned at Maywood yesterday, with most of its contents. A defective flue caused the trouble. No insurance. "If there is a single bolter in Rock-castle, he is keeping mighty quiet," said F. L. Thompson to us yesterday as he was on his way to Danville to hear Goebel and Blackburn. NOW is the time to subscribe. J. W. Hayden has the subscription notes of the McKinney road and is meeting with good success getting them signed, hav-ing secured $1,500 in two days. ADAMS & PINKERTON, of Huston-ville, will be in Stanford with a special cutter from the Globe Tailoring Co., of Cincinnati, Sept. 7, taking orders for Fall and Winter clothing. Call on them at the St. Asaph Hotel. * THE Danville Fair is a pronounced success. A very large crowd attended yesterday and enjoyed a fine exhibition. Today will eclipse all records for in-addition to the show, Goebel and Black-burn will speak and draw like a stick-ing plaster. In the North Jellico mines, at Grays, between 75 and 100 men from Clay and Knox are working in the places of the strikers. The striking miners make threats against the unorganized labor-ers, but knowing the men who are working in their steads don't dare carry them into effect. OLD HOUSE MADE NEW.—Carpen-ters J. M. Stone and R. G. Jones have about completed James Dalton's house near Goshen, which is a thing of beau-ty. They built over the old building which is 108 years old, but it is hoped that the gentlemen won't hang them-selves like the carpenter who built the old house did. HON. M. F. NORTH will begin a speaking tour of the county commencing at Kingsville, Sept. 14, at night and then at every town and school-house in the county. No matter whom the re-publicans nominate Mr. North will be elected and then he will work to reduce your taxes, to pay you for working the roads, give your children cheap school books and to keep you from being op-pressed by trusts and corporations. Vote for him. LEG BAIL.—The other day while Rufus Wilburn, of Garrard, was on the rock pile working out a fine for carry-ing concealed weapons, he took a no-tion to go home. Carrying it into im-mediate effect, he got up and got. Some of Jaller DeBord's boys and others gave chase, but the Garrardite was too fleet of foot and getting into a corn field soon gave his pursuers the slip. He had served 20 of the 40 days assess-ed against him and when he is brought back, as he certainly will be, he will have to do it all over again. The jailer is onto him and it is only a question of time when he will be wearing a ball and chain. RANEY.—At 1 o'clock this morning at his home in Danville, Mr. Wm. Gabriel Raney, after a long illness of stomach troubles, passed to his reward, aged 49. He was raised in this county and for many years made Stanford his home, moving to Danville several years ago in order to give his only son, Lee Raney, the best education possible at Centre College. He married Miss Josie Jones, a niece of C. M. Jones, and she and son are left to mourn the loss of as good a husband and as indulgent a father as ever lived. Mr. Raney was a devoted member of the Methodist church and stood high in its councils. His brother, Mr. T. D. Raney, of this place, has not yet been informed of the hour of the funeral, but it will likely occur tomorrow morning at Danville. BARBOURVILLE FAIR, &c.—The crowd at the Barbourville Fair yester-day was estimated at 3,000 and a larger one was expected to-day. The show of stock was fully up to the average and the speed rings were hotly contested. Thomas W. Napier, who is an Ed Cor-rigan the second, got first and second in the running race, thus holding Crab Orchard's good reputation with bang-tails. George Mitchell, of Knox, won the mule race after split heats and David S. Wilcox, of Richmond, captured the 2:40 trot when everybody thought that T. J. Henson, of Knox, had it won. Prof. Chiesman's London band furnish-ed excellent music and its members were among the popular beaux there. The flying dutchman did a land-office business, while the watermelon man disposed of 250 big melons at 5c a slice. Many pretty girls were in attendance, including Miss Stella McClary, who is staying for the present at Flat Lick, and who received much attention. John Bright and Joseph Brooks were other Lincoln county people at the fair. There is but little disaffection, politi-cally, in Knox and her little band of 800 democrats will do their duty in Novem'er. Barbourville hasn't changed much. The loss by fire of Hon. John Henry Wilson's residence and the ad-dition of the handsome home of the Messrs. Owens are the most marked changes. There are three banks now, two more than there were four months ago, and all seem to be flourishing.
